Foreword

Welcome to talk with us | learn with us | grow with us. We learn something new every day, and this document represents our commitment to continue learning. Through implementing this plan, we are aiming to ensure that every Traveller who comes to us experiences a comprehensive set of services which are continually reviewed in the light of their changing needs.

For the past 35 years, Exchange House Ireland has been learning, and our hope is that we will continue to learn, to innovate, to respond and to review. What is equally important is that everything you read in this document is built from an acknowledgement of the learning of the past 35 years, to coin a phrase, it stands on the shoulders of giants.

We are confident that it lays out very clearly our commitment to our clients, service users, participants, learners, partners and funders. In tandem with setting very clear goals - locally, nationally, regionally and internationally - it provides all of us in Exchange House Ireland with an opportunity to try new, evidence based and innovative approaches to meeting the needs of those who come to us, whilst maintaining our core values of care and integrity. We also hope that it helps us to build the evidence base for the importance of Traveller specific, frontline, crisis intervention services.

Attaining clarity is not easy, and over the past year our management team, staff and board have worked hard to closely engage with the process of the development of this strategy. It started from an internal structural review, evolved into an operational planning process and resulted in us agreeing our indicators of achievement and finding a way to clearly map the journey of those who seek our services and supports. The result is a road map for the organisation for the next three years. Our plan is founded on the fact that that no matter what the presenting issue, Travellers start their journey with Exchange House Ireland by talking with us. Through that conversation, they learn with us and, hopefully, they grow with us. So, whether someone comes to the Family Support and Crisis Intervention

Service, the Travelling to Well-being Mental Health Service, the National Traveller Suicide Prevention Service, the Children and Young People's Service or our Education and Training Service, the process is the same - talk, learn, grow.

Our clients, service users, learners and participants do all the work, we are merely the ballast to support them to do it.

So, as you read this, Exchange House Ireland is working with Travellers in 19 of the 26 counties in Ireland, with sister organisations at local, regional and national level and with partners across the European Union. Our job is to stand solid as our clients, service users, participants and learners plot their own path and to stay beside them as they navigate that path. We are in awe of the strength and resilience of the Travellers with whom we work, and look forward to the day when their distinct place as Ireland's indigenous ethnic minority is not only acknowledged, but celebrated.

We would like to take this opportunity to acknowledge our funders and partners who continue to entrust us with the resources and support to continue this work, our staff who commit on a daily basis to accompanying our clients on their journey and our volunteer Board who give of their time to support and guide the work. We look forward to implementing the strategy and to ensuring that it remains a real and vibrant process.

Background

Talk with us | Learn with us | Grow with us

Talk with us | Learn with us | Grow with us aims to provide a comprehensive overview of the vision, strategy and goals of Exchange House Ireland for 2015 – 2017. In addition, it provides a set of SMART objectives – at both strategic and operational levels – to ensure that the momentum, focus and delivery of these are maintained during its three year lifespan.

In addition, it should also provide a roadmap to ensure that significant milestones in the achievement of the overall impact of the strategy are marked and that opportunities are afforded all stakeholders to review practice and achievement at specific stages. In tandem, it should provide opportunities to clearly deal with challenges emerging and changes in the infrastructural landscape within which Exchange House Ireland operates.

Of course, this is notwithstanding the need to ensure fidelity to the plan for the time period under consideration in order to be able to accurately reflect on achievements, processes and practice on the basis of sustained evidence.

Talk with us | Learn with us | Grow with us was developed over a year long process of exploration, analysis, discussion and review of all of the work of Exchange House Ireland and has at its core the aim of ensuring that the significant and complex needs presented by our clients, and participants continue to be met with care and integrity.

Finally, Talk with us | Learn with us | Grow with us is our public commitment – to clients, learners, participants, partners and funders - to ensuring that the three decades' experience of Exchange House Ireland is built upon over the next three years and that the hard work and commitment of current and previous staff, volunteers and Board is honoured, celebrated and acknowledged.

Delivering

Talk with Us | Learn with Us | Grow With Us

Monitoring and Reporting on Progress and Outcomes

A significant amount of work has been undertaken at all levels within the organisation to ensure that the achievement of the strategic and service level goals outlined in this document is monitored and reported upon both internally and externally using clearly defined and authenticated metrics related to our core indicators of achievement. To this end, the following systems have been put in place (above and beyond the infrastructural and governance oversight provided through the regular reporting to and from the Board and Sub-Committees).

Financial Management and Reporting

The now established Finance and Audit Sub-Committee has done significant work on developing the already existing financial reporting templates distributed monthly to the Board and in finalising the Financial Procedures handbook. Within this context, the Finance Manager and Chief Executive meet weekly to ensure ongoing discussion and analysis of financial matters.

Finance Manager to Chief Executive	▶	Weekly Reporting
Chief Executive to Finance and Audit Committee	▶	Quarterly Reporting
Finance and Audit Sub-Committee to Board	▶	Standing Agenda Item
Organisation to Funders	▶	Monthly, Quarterly and Annual Audit and Reporting

Strategic Reporting

The Chief Executive provides an overview – through Board meetings and regular meetings with the Chair and sub-committees – of the progress in implementing the strategic and service level goals of the organisation. In addition, formal quarterly reports on progress, regular information updates and “infographics” are also available on the organisation’s website and through social media.

Service Level Reporting and Management

The Management Team has been augmented to include the Finance Manager and the EU Projects and Policy Officer. This team meets at least twice monthly with the Chief Executive to ensure that there is coherence in message, approach and systems within each service and to afford opportunities to develop more integrated working practices across all services within the organisation. In addition, it has the significant benefit of providing an opportunity for peer support for managers and the opportunity to develop creative and innovative approaches to delivering upon the core goals of the organisation.

Service Managers report to the Chief Executive in the following ways:

- Weekly One to One Meetings (or more)
- Bi-Monthly Management Team Meetings
- Monthly written reports

Through these myriad methods, we are committed to ensuring that the implementation of Talk with Us | Learn with Us | Grow with Us is consistently monitored at both strategic and operational levels.

A final word

The key resources available to Exchange House Ireland in achieving its strategic and service level goals within the 2015 – 2017 period are its' highly skilled and professional staff team and its' reputation – both within the Traveller community and amongst the wide variety of funders. Within this context, our significant experience provides an opportunity to develop and disseminate concrete evidence on the nature and extent of the experience of the client base at local, regional, national and international levels. This in turn has the potential to concretely inform policy level decision making around the future service provision needs of Travellers in Ireland. The process of re-presenting Exchange House Ireland, of clearly identifying its core strength as a Traveller specific, frontline crisis intervention service provider, was implemented to ensure that the organisation is strategically positioned to ensure that it maintains, but also builds, its profile and momentum as the only service provider of its kind on the island of Ireland. The opportunities to build regional partnerships, enhance Traveller representation at governance level and ensure the availability of our unique suite of services are many – through the restructuring of the HSE, through active engagement with the new National Traveller and Roma Integration Strategy and through continuing to work with our European funders and partners.

Over the past number of years, Exchange House Ireland has experienced swingeing cuts to its core service provision budgets. Upon commencing the development of this strategy, however, it became clear that whilst this has been a difficult and challenging experience, the level and quality of front-line services provided by the organisation has not diminished. In order to achieve these strategic and service level goals, Exchange House Ireland is in receipt of significant funding from various (almost all) statutory agencies, government departments, the European Commission and charitable trusts and exploring new and emerging funding streams is a constant within the Office of the Chief Executive.
